

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

FILED

NOV 24 2015

IN RE: FRED C. LOLLIS and) ROSEMARY A. LOLLIS,) GO-15-10

Phil Lombardi, Clerk
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

GENERAL ORDER

On October 20, 2015, an Opinion and Order [Dkt. #3] was entered in Case No. 15-CV-592-GKF-FHM which outlined certain filing restrictions upon Fred C. Lollis and Rosemary A. Lollis. The Court gave the Lollises ten (10) days to file a written objection to the imposition of the restrictions. No objection has been filed. Accordingly, this General Order sets forth filing restrictions upon Fred C. Lollis and Rosemary A. Lollis to prevent further frivolous filings in this Court, and sets forth the procedure with which they must comply in submitting certain pleadings to this Court for consideration for filing.

With respect to any pro se pleading, Fred C. Lollis and Rosemary A. Lollis are required to submit to the Clerk of this Court an "Application and Affidavit" for the proposed filing, with the "Proposed Pleading" attached as an exhibit. The Application and Affidavit should request permission of the Court to file the Proposed Pleading and should also contain the information detailed in paragraph (1), below.

1. The Application and Affidavit must contain a statement by Fred C. Lollis or Rosemary A. Lollis, under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1947, in proper form, which includes: (a) the legal basis for the Proposed Pleading; (b) the specific factual basis for the Proposed Pleading; (c) a statement that the issues raised in the Proposed Pleading have never been finally disposed of by any federal or state court; (d) the identity and nature of assistance by any third person in preparing the Proposed Pleading; (e) a statement that the factual allegations and/or legal arguments raised by the Proposed Pleading are (i) not frivolous or made in bad faith, (ii) warranted by existing law, (iii) not made for an improper purpose to cause delay or needless increase in costs, and (iv) not made to avoid any order of any court; (f) a list of all witnesses and attachment of all documents which support the factual allegations of the Proposed Pleading; and (g) the Proposed Pleading which Fred C. Lollis or Rosemary A. Lollis is requesting that the Court file (attached as an Exhibit to the Application and Affidavit). The Application and Affidavit for Filing shall be scanned and numbered by the Clerk of the Court. However, the Application and Affidavit for Filing shall not be accepted for filing unless it is approved by Order of the Chief Judge or the Chief Judge's designee.

2. The Application and Affidavit, or any documents or pleadings submitted by Fred C. Lollis or Rosemary A. Lollis to the Clerk of the Court, shall be referred to a United States Magistrate Judge to determine whether the documents or proposed pleadings meet the requirements outlined in paragraph (1). The Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge shall be filed of record and reviewed by the Chief Judge, or by a judge designated by the Chief Judge. Fred C. Lollis and Rosemary A. Lollis are permitted, in accordance with the standard rules providing for objections to a Report and Recommendation, to submit an Objection to the filed Report and Recommendation. The Court Clerk shall file of record any such Objection to the Report and Recommendation in the miscellaneous case established pursuant to the General Order (see below).
3. The Chief Judge or the Judge designated to review the Report and Recommendation shall review the Objection filed by Fred C. Lollis or Rosemary A. Lollis, if any, and the Report and Recommendation, and determine whether or not the Proposed Pleading, attached as an exhibit to the Application and Affidavit, or any other document submitted by Fred C. Lollis or Rosemary A. Lollis shall be filed. Absent the approval of the Chief Judge, or the Chief Judge's designee, the Proposed Pleading or any other submitted pleading or document, except for the Objection to the Report and Recommendation, shall not be filed. If the Chief Judge or the Chief Judge's designee approves the filing, an order shall be entered by that Judge that the Court Clerk shall file the pleading or document. The order of the Chief Judge or the Chief Judge's designee shall also indicate if the pleading or document should be filed in the miscellaneous case established pursuant to this General Order (see below), if a new case number should be opened for the pleading or document, or if the pleading or document should be filed in an existing case. The order of the Chief Judge or the Chief Judge's designee shall, if the pleading or document is accepted for filing, outline any filing restrictions that will remain with respect to future pleadings or documents submitted by Fred C. Lollis or Rosemary A. Lollis.

4. Any pro se Notice of Appeal to the Tenth Circuit or any other filing related to an appeal submitted by Fred C. Lollis or Rosemary A. Lollis to the Clerk of the Court shall be filed immediately and processed in the normal course of business.

The Court Clerk is directed to set up an ongoing miscellaneous case upon the next submission by Fred C. Lollis or Rosemary A. Lollis for the purpose of accomplishing the procedures set forth in this General Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 24th day of November, 2015.
